RELEASE OF LIABILITY & ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RULES

I release the Little Miss Wyoming Scholarship Pageant™, Inc, the Little Miss Montana Scholarship Pageant™, Teri Mahaffy, Kristie Reimers, and all pageant volunteers from any and all injuries that my child or I may receive before, during, and after our participation in this pageant and in events associated, including parades & appearances. I understand that the above are not responsible for anything lost, stolen, or broken.

I have received permission from my photographer for my submitted photo to be used in the program book and I have a photo use release form in my possession, signed by my photographer that I can produce if needed.

I give my full permission for the program to use any and all photos of my child and myself that have been taken at the pageant and at related events, for the purpose of advertising in any way, including posters, newspaper ads, business cards, etc. now, and in years to come. I also give my permission for those photos to be used on the Little Miss Wyoming Pageant™ website at www.littlemisswyoming.com and on any new websites for the Montana program in the future, and I give my permission for my daughter's and my first name to appear on the pageant website, and her full name to appear in advertising.

I understand and agree that all money mailed to the pageant is non-refundable.

I understand that my guests and I are not allowed to talk to any pageant judge before, during, or after the pageant, and that the contestant will be automatically disqualified if this happens.

I understand and agree to conduct myself in a sportsmanship-like manner (parents and guests included) and that my child may be disqualified if a poor display occurs.

I understand that I will be charged the state maximum for all returned checks and that the will be immediately and automatically turned over to checkrite. I understand that the pageant will also use the Collection Agency for cancelled checks, checks written from closed accounts, etc. and that I will be responsible for any collection cost, including court costs and attorney's fees.

I understand that I am responsible for staying with my child at all times and that the directors, volunteers, and the pageant itself are not responsible for my child. I understand that if my child is in the Tiny Miss Wyoming age division that a chaperone who is at least 18 years of age must be onstage at all times, and that if I break this rule, my child will be disqualified from that event.

I understand that I am required to be lined up on time for each event, and that if I am not in line, my child will be skipped and will receive a zero score for that event. I also understand that talents must be 2:30 minutes or less in length.

I understand that if my daughter wins the title of Tiny Miss Montana, Tot Miss Montana, Little Miss Montana, Preteen Miss Montana, or Teen Miss Montana, that she will be expected to fulfill her reign until she gives up her title in 2011 at the 2011 Little Miss Montana State Finals. I understand that if my daughter violates this rule by competing in another local or state pageant in Wyoming during her reign, she will pass her title to her successor and all rights to that title, include her crown, banner, scepter, and robe, or the equivalent cost for the program to crown a successor who is willing and eager to represent the title for the year. I agree to pay all court costs, attorney's fees, and/or collection fees if necessary to replace these items for the successor to assume my daughter's reign if necessary. I understand that these 5 state titleholders are allowed to compete at national level pageants, however, if they win a national title that will not allow them to finish their reign exclusively in Montana, they will have to pass this state title to their successor at their expense.

I understand that if my daughter wins a LMM state title, she will be required to ride in a minimum of four (4) parades in Montana plus her hometown parade (with the exception of Tiny Miss Montana), and attend a minimum of 5 (five) preliminary pageants that will be staged during the 2010-2011 pageant season if preliminary pageants are held. She will also be required to attend the 2011 State Finals to crown her successor.

I will be competing in the 2010 Little Miss Montana Scholarship Pageant State Finals, May 21/22, in Billings, MT. Please accept this "Entry Form" and my non-refundable state entry fee. I am the parent or legal guardian of this contestant, I am at least 18 years of age, I understand, acknowledge, and agree to this release of liability, and I have made a copy of this document for myself.
